

The Marie Edwards Travelling Scholarship in Visual Arts, Craft and Design 2010

APPLICATION FORM

Tasmanian artist, Marie Edwards, endowed this scholarship to enable postgraduate visual arts students to gain experience overseas while studying at UTAS. Valued at $2000, the scholarship can support a broad range of international projects and also assist self-funded residencies at the Rosamond McCulloch studio. The Marie Edwards Travelling Scholarship in Visual Arts, Craft and Design is available to students currently undertaking postgraduate study in visual arts, craft or design at the University of Tasmania.

Family Name: _____ Title: _____

Given Names: _____

Gender: Male [] Female [] Student ID: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Home Address: _____

Term Address (if applicable): _____

Phone: wk: _____ hm: _____ mob: _____

Email (if read): _____

Please tick:

I am also applying for a self-funded residency at the Rosamond McCulloch studio and attach this form to my completed Rosamond McCulloch application package.

I am only applying for the Marie Edwards Travelling Scholarship and attach to this form:

- a current copy of my curriculum vitae;
- a detailed two-page statement outlining my travel proposition, project context and purpose and a proposed itinerary and budget of my proposed travel plan.
- 10 images of my current work on CD, plus slide details, or max of 12 A4 pages for writers and curators or DVD/CD ROM/video of up to 5 minutes duration for new media/ installation artists.
- a short artist's statement.
- a self-addressed stamped envelope for return of documentation and support material.

You do not need to provide a transcript of academic results from the University of Tasmania.

Return to:

Ms Suan Lee, Tasmanian School of Art, Private Bag 57, Hobart TAS 7001

By: 5pm Friday, 4 September 2009

Need Help? Call Tasmanian School of Art Reception on (03) 6226 4300